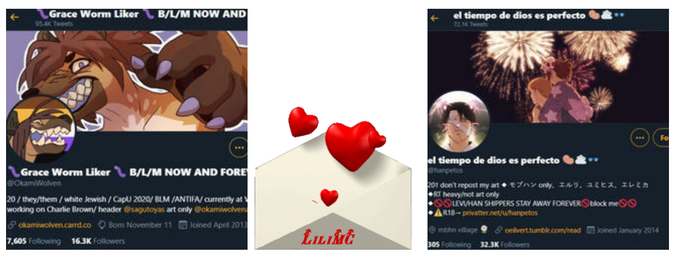
RETARD DRAMA

once upon a time .. there were 2 adults above the ages of 20 ... losing their minds and shits over attack on titan ships ... getting ptsd from that .. literal post traumatic stress disorder ... walking up to their therapists and telling them how this one meanie on twitter dared to ship an aot ship they don't like ... and here they are



DOES THIS LOOK LIKE AN ADULT BEHAVIOR OR THE BEHAVIOR OF THE DISABLED WHO THINK ANIME SHIPS ARE EVERYTHING THEY NEED IN LIFE?

a picture of 4 adults who seem perfectly healthy in mind and don't think their attack on titan ships getting attacked are a breach of security and an assault on their mental health

But those two? they're both retarded enemies to lovers, retards to retards, this is why the mentally disabled shouldn't be allowed to use the internet ... one thinks she's so good people will genuinely take the time of their day to edit levi and hanji in her art together ... one is too busy having a victim complex and thinking hanji is a retarded nonbinary enby ... both of them actually think that ... little do they know that <3 their retardations are mutual

i don't like talking about this. but i will so you understand. last year i had a panic attack. i didn't eat for almost a week and my hair started falling off. i don't know why this affected me so much. but i guess my body was just tired of many things and i collapsed.
